

JOHN F. KENNEDY UNIVERSITY

Established in 1964 as one of the nation's first universities devoted specifically to the education of working students of all ages, John F. Kennedy University is constituted on the ideals of fairness, opportunity, civic leadership, and justice. At JFK University, we strive to nurture and transmit these ideals, both in our classrooms and throughout our larger society.

John F. Kennedy University is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges. The School of Law is accredited by The Committee of Bar Examiners of the State Bar of California. John F. Kennedy University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, height, weight, national origin, religion, age, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, veteran status, or disability. In a continuing effort to enrich its academic environment and provide equal educational and employment opportunities, the university actively encourages applications from members of all groups that are underrepresented in higher education.

INTEGRAL INSTITUTE
In partnership with

School of Holistic Studies

CERTIFICATE IN

INTEGRAL THEORY

PROGRAM FEATURES

The Integral Theory Certificate program is delivered using a cohort system that ensures a strong student community and provides excellent networking opportunities. Groups of 10 to 24 students from across the continent and the world progress together in a rich collaborative environment. Communication occurs through ongoing phone calls, online interactions, and two residential stays.

The online delivery provides round-the-clock course access, giving students maximum scheduling flexibility and opportunity to engage the course material. This format is

